

Dear western Museum of flight,

I thank all the docents because they told us about airplanes. I liked learning about world war 1 and 11. Thank you for inviting us and paying for the bus. I liked what I saw like the war fighter planes and the models. I enjoyed using the computer even though my plane crashed and the simulator was fun. I learned about airplanes radios. The wright Brothers information was interesting. Sincerely, Miguel Angel Plata

