Producer: Cynthia Allen & Dan Blank
Director/Writer: Dan Blank

DOCUMENTARY

Breaking the History of Silence—The Women's International War Crimes Tribunal on Japan's Military Sexual Slavery

The Women's International War Crimes Tribunal was held in Tokyo, Japan, in 2000, to bring Hirohito and other Japanese leaders of WWII to justice for Japan's military sexual violence until 1945. The video was a record of this event.

Production: Makiko Matsumoto; Video Juku
Producer/Director/Writer: Video Juku

Grass War! Peasant Struggle in Brazil

Portrays the story of 5,000 peasants who in 1959 resisted expulsion from their remote farms in Brazil. Leader Jofie Correa Netto became famous as the "Brazilian Fidel Castro." The conflict holds a place in the long history of battles against social injustice in Brazil.

Production: Cliff Welch; Grand Valley State Univ.
Producer/Writer: Cliff Welch Director: Toni Perrine

Left Behind

Reveals the devastating effects of AIDS on Kenya's children by exploring the lives of HIV-positive orphans at Nyumbani Orphanage; why the virus spreads in the poverty-ridden slums; and the struggle for survival of AIDS orphans on the street.

Production: Christof Putzel; Connecticut College-Film Studies Department
Sponsor: David Tetzlaff (film professor); Connecticut College-Film Studies Department
Producer/Writer/Director: Christof Putzel

Urban Scribe

Follows the personal lives of four spoken word artists as they spin their tales and street prophecies in New York City. As they inspire the people/listeners, they attempt to re-piece their fragmented lives through their art.

Production: Jane Han; Princeton University
Sponsor: Su Friedrich; Princeton University (Visual Arts)
Producer: Martin A. Dale Director: Jane Han
Sound: Bill Dederer
